Hardest Problem

How hard can it be? Can you still use what you've learned?

Find what you consider the hardest number to make sense of. List all the reasons why this number is hard to make sense of. How do you address these issues so that new numbers will make more sense?