Learning to Learn Mathematics Reflecting on and appreciating your learning

1. Why is validating your learning an important learning skill?

2. When validating your work, why is it important to use prior knowledge?

3. Why is it important to know how to establish the requirements of a solution?

4. What would you advise another student about validation?